Social and Cultural Peripeteias of Tiflis-Tbilisi`s Biography:
What,
Who
and How
Should Be Protected in the Old City?

``A city (civitas) is a multitude of people united by a bond of community, named for its `citizens` that is, from the residents of city (urbs) [because it has jurisdiction over and `contains the lives` (contineat vitas) of many]. Now urbs (also `city`) is the name for actual buildings, while civitas is not stones but inhabitans``

Saint Isidore of Seville (560-636 AD)

``City is a multitude of people residing in a community, for in order to subsist  man should enjoy mutual aid and benefit sharing rather then live alone``

Sulkhan-Saba Orbeliani (1658-1725)
